

RELIGIOUS EXEMPTION TO COVID-19 VACCINATION REQUEST FORM

Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center (“TTUHSC”) has ongoing relationships with many health care organizations to support clinical service and learning opportunities for the university. Many of these clinical and hospital affiliates mandate the COVID-19 vaccine (“Non-TTUHSC Facility COVID Mandate”) for TTUHSC employees, licensed practitioners, students, trainees, volunteers and others providing treatment or care or other services at their facilities (collectively “Covered Individuals”).

To request an exemption from the Non-TTUHSC Facility COVID Mandate because you are not vaccinated against COVID-19 due to a sincerely held religious belief, observance or practice, please complete this form.

All religious exemption request forms for non-student individuals must be submitted HERE.

All religious exemption request forms for TTUHSC student must be submitted HERE.

Exemption requests will be processed in the order received.

TTUHSC will review submissions on a case-by-case basis and request follow-up information from you as necessary. If your exemption request is approved, you will receive an approval email for your records.

Please identify the particular, sincerely held religious belief, observance or practice that you believe you would be required to violate or forgo in being required to receive a COVID-19 vaccine:

Describe how receiving a COVID-19 vaccine conflicts with your sincerely held religious belief, observance or practice. Please be as specific as possible in describing your sincerely held religious belief, observance or practice and how it supports your request for an exemption from a Non-TTUHSC Facility COVID Mandate:

I understand that the Non-TTUHSC Facility COVID Mandate requires that I be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 to continue to work or learn in certain healthcare settings. I am requesting to be exempted from the Non-TTUHSC Facility COVID Mandate requirement because of a sincerely held religious belief, observance or practice.
