

a lot of competition and getting into our nursing school. So the more science courses you have in the more A's that you have on those courses, the better and that will also enrich you and help you to be a better nursing student having a stronger science background.