The Boys of '36

Thursday, September 15
Noon, ACB 240

The Boys of '36 is the story of nine working-class young men from the University of Washington who took the rowing world and America by storm when they captured the gold medal at the 1936 Olympic Games in Berlin. Their unexpected victory, against not only the Ivy League teams of the East Coast but Adolf Hitler's elite German rowers, gave hope to a nation struggling to emerge from the depths of the Great Depression.

Attendees are welcome to bring their own lunch.

Free snacks will be provided!

This event is free and open to the public. No RSVP is necessary.
